Friend, foe or unknown force flying overhead? Congress should find out

Since 2015, dozens of Navy F-18 fighter jets have encountered unidentified aerial phenomenon (UAPs) — once commonly referred to as UFOs — off the East Coast of the United States, some not far from the nation’s capital. Encounters have been reported by other military aircraft and civilian airliners elsewhere in the U.S. and abroad, too, including videos shot by airline passengers.

What these UAPs were and who was flying them — whether friends, foes or unknown forces — remains a mystery. Yet careful examination of the data inevitably leads to one possible, disturbing conclusion: A potential adversary of the United States has mastered technologies we do not yet understand to achieve capabilities we cannot yet match.

It is long past time for Congress to discover the answers to those questions and to share at least some of its conclusions with the public.

The U.S. government came a large step closer to confirming the reality of UAPs when the U.S. Navy acknowledged in late April that “there have been a number of reports of unauthorized and/or unidentified aircraft entering various military-controlled ranges and designated airspace in recent years.”

But first, members of Congress and the public need to become familiar with the facts.

Unfortunately, it is impossible to gauge the overall level of UAP activity since military personnel rarely report their encounters for fear of damage to their careers. Even when reports are filed, the information generally is ignored because nobody “owns” the UAP issue and the various commands and agencies involved have not shared information on UAPs.

It remains to be seen whether the Navy's new UAP reporting process will be emulated throughout our massive, almost feudal security apparatus in which the barons sometimes spend more time protecting bureaucratic turf from rivals than protecting U.S. territory from adversaries. Thus, any genuine solution to the UAP issue must address the issue of interagency coordination and collaboration.

The good news is that America already possesses vast sensor networks, ranging from the depths of the oceans to the harsh bleakness of space, capable of collecting the requisite information. All that Congress need do at this juncture is require the secretary of Defense and the director of national intelligence to review the UAP issue and deliver a report providing a comprehensive assessment. This report should include not only an estimate of the situation but a description of the structure and processes required to ensure effective collection and analysis going forward.

The Trump administration should be free to provide the report at whatever level of classification it deems appropriate. One entity with which I am involved — To the Stars Academy (TTSA), an organization of former U.S. intelligence and national security experts analyzing the UAP phenomenon — has placed notional legislative language on its website to facilitate this discussion. While some modest manpower costs might be incurred, the TTSA proposal does not require new Defense Department funding. It also averts the spectacle of public hearings and the attendant risk of injecting partisanship or grandstanding into the process.

Why should Congress act? In the first instance because it is Congress's job to raise, organize and fund the military. It can hardly do so without being fully aware of the threats we face. Indeed, that is why we have a law requiring written notice to Congress of serious intelligence failures. Most Americans would no doubt agree that our inability to identify scores of mysterious aircraft repeatedly violating restricted U.S. military airspace in recent years is a shocking failure. But there is no need to wrangle over compliance with intelligence oversight laws. The Navy's recent admissions regarding UAP intrusions provide more than adequate grounds for requiring a written report to Congress.

Perhaps we'll learn that Russian President Vladimir Putin was not idly boasting when he bragged, more than a decade ago, that Russia's "newest technical systems will be capable of destroying targets at an intercontinental distance with hypersonic speed and extreme maneuverability." While it seems unlikely that Russia — or China — has pulled that far ahead of the U.S., there is no reason to leave this to chance. And while the Navy's announcement seems to eliminate the prospect that these vehicles are secret U.S. military aircraft, perhaps we'll find that Elon Musk has some amazing new toys.

It is not just that the UAPs that military pilots are encountering are strange — no paint, rivets, wings, antenna, safety lights, transponders or exhaust — but they sometimes are so fast and maneuverable that they defy our understanding of physics. For example, some of these vehicles appear to withstand forces of acceleration far greater than maximum design limits of any man-made aircraft. No wonder some military witnesses — often pilots who are scientists or engineers themselves — actually lean toward the hypothesis that they are not from this world. Like all good scientists, these pilots recognize that our theories must adjust to facts and new information, however daunting, not the other way around.

If our best minds were brought to bear to study the technology confronting us, much as the Japanese did in the 1850s when confronted by Admiral Perry's fleet, then unprecedented technological breakthroughs could occur in short order. For example, the fact that these craft do not seem to produce exhaust yet fly vast distances at immense speeds could provide technical solutions to our energy crisis.

Some of America's finest aviators and air defense personnel are trying to get our attention. They are not panicked — but they are right to be concerned. It seems clear the facts demand further action. In light of the facts, a mere report requirement seems a very modest response to potentially disturbing new national security information.

If UAPs turn out to be toys of Elon Musk's making, we'll all breathe a sigh of relief. If they are Russian, we'll be glad we took action now rather than kicking the can down the road. If we learn that someone else's more advanced version of our Voyager spacecraft has reached Earth, then this humble measure will forever transform our understanding of the universe and man's place within it.

By any measure, the effort required to prepare a report for Congress seems to be a bargain.

Fresh attack aimed at US navy.

A Naval base at Pensacola Florida saw the gunman kill 3 and wound 7 others before being shot dead.

Now we know. The evil elite are sending a signal attacking the Navy because it's supporting the US President.

Remember when the Pentagon was attacked on sept 11th it was the navy offices that also got hit hard.

The evil elite have declared a 'war' on the Navy and we should expect a kick back as I know that the navy which is a proud constitution loving American organization will not take this lying down.

They will see it for what it is. Not some deranged mad man but an orchestrated and elite planning operation to hurt the President and threaten the constitution.

- 12-6-19 Ohio Man makes free energy

In a 911 call, a man said he was working on a quantum physics generator in his garage and that he suffered radio-frequency burns. Fire officials said the words the man used in the call were “alpha waves and particle accelerator,” which led to concerns over radiation. However, crews found no signs of radiation on the man who called 911, first responders told 10TV.com.

About 40 residences were temporarily evacuated while crews investigated the man’s claims. Hazmat crews checked the garage where the man said he had been working on the generator, and then bomb squad and an arson team were to investigate. The man, who is in his late 20s or early 30s, said he was building a vortex plasma 'quantum physics generator' in his garage and referenced 'alpha waves' and a 'particle accelerator' in his call last night. (German Bell tech perhaps?)

Fire officials said the man could have been working on a capacitor, and that they asked American Electric Power to inspect it.

Also, the man who called 911 will undergo mental evaluation at a hospital and officials plan to file inducing panic charges against him, 10TV.com reported.

The Reptilians, or Ducaz were sent by their "masters", the Nephilim or Elohim to fight in wars with other alien races and to serve as their spies, bodyguards and police force. There are many factions amongst the Anunnaki.

One of the most bitter enemies of the Ducaz call themselves the "Pers-sires", a group of aliens for which I coined the word "Vulturites" many years ago. They are called Vulturites not because they look like vultures, as some have claimed. In fact, they don't look like that at all!

There are very apt reasons why I have called them Vulturites which I will not go into in this discussion.

They are Annunaki remnants here on earth.

It is a common war gimmick for the same alien groups to sponsor and fight amongst themselves regarding certain matters in such a way that the general public is deceived into thinking that there are two different groups involved, when, in fact, they are the same group. This is much like the government-sponsored internet pedophilia that is broken up by the very ones who initiated the spread of child pornography. This is like the running and policing of drugs by the same group. Water shortages are created and policed by the same parties. Ecological problems are presented and then solved by the same people. As of February, police in China's Zhengzhou region have launched sunglasses with built-in, facial-recognition technology to track suspects and scan documents.

Meanwhile, Chinese companies, from tech start-ups like SenseTime and Hikvision, to multinational e-commerce giant Alibaba, are working hand-in-glove with the Chinese Government to build the proposed nationwide surveillance and data-sharing platform.

Facial recognition has also been used to prevent toilet paper theft in China since last year, which was reportedly a nationwide problem.

destruction are created and policed by the same source. The game of creating problems to exploit the people, then creating the solutions to further benefit themselves extends to many fields, including: legal and illegal drug trafficking, social and health services, dental care, nutrition, pet and animal food and veterinary services, work place conditions and so on.

Do not be surprised when it becomes a common scene in various countries for people who run afoul of NWO dictates to be put on public display in glass cubicles. The new shame "jails" will be much like zoo cages. The "jail" cells will work as a deterrent for any who might be thinking of mounting a protest against the NWO. The ruling elite will encourage the crowd to gather around the "jails" and taunt the "criminals". This has happened in other galaxies when the Reptilians imposed their NWO schemes.

Chinese authorities use facial recognition, public shaming to crack down on jaywalking, criminals.

http://www.xeeatwelve.net/articles/reptilian\_nwo.html

When WWI ended, the Reptilians drove the world economy to great heights before collapsing it into a deep depression. This set the stage for two seemingly insignificant and relatively innocuous countries to build up military strength, and commence what appeared to be a move for global domination by Germany and Japan. After letting WWII run its course, the Reptilians folded it up into a neat package where the world remained in a continual state of war, but with no real winners or losers in most of the battles.

Many people are finding it harder and harder to cope on all levels. Hence, many are wanting to belong to a group of like-minded people for support. Of course, in such a group one is often likely to fall into a similar trap from another "mentor". Everyone should look within, because it is the spark inside that is crucial. Then they will be less likely to be misguided or pressured by peers or "mentors". Everyone needs to use their own inner guidance to make their own decisions. There are very few true teachers left in this world, but there are many "mentors". If you will let your higher self be your true teacher, you will be guided.

Aliens who abduct people generally tamper with or block the memories of their victims. They use frequencies that distort the time/space continuum and mask memories of certain events. Those who have remembered abduction experiences have related very traumatic events. Most people think of an abduction as being a physical taking of a body into a spacecraft, but this is rarely the case. Usually it is only the subtle body that is taken on the craft.

Some of the supposed alien abductions are really conducted by earthly governments. This confuses matters even more. These activities are very dirty and more complicated than people think. Abductions conducted by governments are usually physical ones. The aliens do not want to provide governments with the technology for subtle-body abductions.

As previously mentioned, all living things in this Virtual Reality have magnetic fields surrounding their bodies. There is a loosely defined region or envelope of subtle energies that is commonly called an "aura" emanating from everything in nature, including human beings and animals. The human body is composed of the physical body and subtle bodies. The part of the aura that is closest to the human body is often known as the etheric body. The etheric body has a matrix of energy vortexes that are often called "chakras".

The aura is relatively fragile in that it can be easily invaded and imposed upon by outside forces. A person's physical, emotional and mental state can affect his or her auric defence systems. For instance, drinking alcohol, consuming legal and illegal drugs, pornography, highly charged negative emotions such as intense jealousy, hate, fear, frustration and so on can pollute, cause blockages, weaken the energy centres and "loosen" the etheric cover to the extent that it allows unwanted intruders into the person's aura, or, worse still, to take possession of one of the chakras. When this happens, it can cause an astral being to manipulate, influence or control the victim. For example, an astral entity who loves alcohol can influence an abstainer to drink heavily. Likewise, a non-gambler could become a compulsive punter. In some cases, the entity could encourage someone to kill another. These are some of the negative effects of possession. With the dimension breaking down, people are becoming more vulnerable to astral attacks and body snatching.

Everyone is subjected to bombardment from thought patterns floating in the ether, from physical things they see and hear everyday. Television, books and conversations affect them with programming on their subtle bodies. The programming on the subtle bodies is constant. Darkness created the subtle bodies to make it easier to control the thoughts and actions of victims with programming. Some people foolishly participate in activities that weaken their resistance to external programming and manipulation.

Sometimes the programming takes the form of depletion of life force energy, or, worse still, vampirism, which can be done deliberately by those who know how to siphon energy from others. There are also ignorant "energy vampires" who latch onto others without knowing they are stealing huge amounts of energy until the victim is so depleted of energy that they are exhausted to the extent of feeling sick for days. This will occur more frequently as the shortage of energy becomes more critical all over the world.

The chosen earthly leader of the Reptilians is a royal figure residing in Great Britain. The chosen earthly leader of the Vulturites wears the mask of a religious figure. These two beings are in serious conflict, even though it is not obvious in the physical to most people.

Annunaki in Syria and Iraq.

Annunaki strongholds revealed.

The Kremlin knows of at least six Annunaki strongholds. According to Russian intelligence the majority of Annunaki nests are located in Syria and at least one pocket of alien invaders is located in Iraq, Iran and Yemen. The Kremlin has for at least a decade known the whereabouts of these malicious extraterrestrials and President Putin has commanded his senior staff to brainstorm strategies to engage and defeat all alien hideouts.

Some details.

The Annunaki he says are immune to conventional fire arms and ballistic weapons but are highly susceptible to next generation energy based sonic munitions. Bullets bounce off them but lasers vaporize them at contact.

High amplitude sound with 700kHz to 2.3mHz range causing the Annunaki to have severe pain and disorientation. The beings are bipedic humanoids between 7 and 15 feet tall. Some have talons on their hands others bare a close resembles to humans. The variation in height are attributed to Annunaki cross breeding with other species.

Combating these Annunaki happens deep in a network of caverns scattered across the Syrian landscape. Moreover, they have constructed portals that allow them to instantly transport from one location to an other. The portals are invisible to the human Eyesight, the Annunaki optically shielded them against any being unable to detect light at 400 angstroms. Which humans can not.

The number of portals they have is unknown. When Russian special forces try to engage they simply enter a portal and materialize elsewhere. At least one Annunaki was captured but the information he gave is not known to be truthful or not.

Until this day it is not known how many of their forces there are. President Putin is spending vast amounts of currency to fight the Annunaki hideouts already confirmed.

Turkish military forces killed in combat with Annunaki.

Russian and Turkish forces clash with Annunaki in Syria. In the predawn hours of tuesday 13 Oktober 2017, a joint Russian/Turkish military unit clashed with Annunaki invaders 30 miles North of Western Aleppo near the Turkish/Syrian border. A Turkish army convoy consisting of 100 commando's and multiple armoured personel carriers rendezvous with Russian Spetznaz combat units and Extraterrestrial specialist from Russia.

President Putin and President Erdogan agreed the operation after confirmed reports of non-human entities massing near the border of the battled city. President Erdogan sought Putin's help hearing legions of Annunaki might leave Syria, a domain they have known to inhabit and plagued this area for millennia. Despite Erdogans commitments to NATO and the US Putin was sympathetic to his plight, after all Turkey had recently signed a deal to purchase S-400 Air Defence systems from Russia. Moreover Putin sees the Annunaki as a virus that must be wiped from the planet.

A source quote' Russian Special Forces have battled Annunaki in the past. In the last two years alone we have lost three expeditionary forces to Extraterrestrial conflicts in the area. We lost because the creatures are almost immune for ballistic weapons, this time we had the advantage because we discovered that they had no defence against medium strength energy weapons. How Putin becomes to know this is unclear. there are reports of a captured Annunaki which was supposedly used to test different kind of non-conventional weapons systems like laser and directed energy beam weapons.

He said' The military unit employed cutting-edge vehicle mounted lasers that produced a steady burst of 10kW energy which vaporized Annunaki on contact. Because the Annunaki were hiding in a network of caves and needed flushing out Turkish forces sustained an unconfirmed number of casualties during a protracted engagement lasting for two hours. Many Turkish Commando's went into the cave to meet their doom to roundup the Annunaki. There are no handheld units at this moment but in the near future it will.

Turkish soldiers had to draw them out for Russian soldiers to target. Annunaki might be smart but also not so smart, if they had stayed deep in the caves where they were the vehicles weapons could not have reached them. But they kept poring out of the cave to avenge their fallen comrades and two by two they fell. An estimated 50 to 75 Annunaki were reported to be destroyed by this new Russian technology.

A Giant Statue Of Molech Has Been Put Up Right At The Entrance To The Colosseum In Rome – USSA ...

Without a doubt, it truly is an abomination that a gigantic statue of Molech is now standing right at the entrance of the Colosseum where so many Christians were brutally slaughtered by the Romans. So look at what the new Italian leftist-globalist government is now up to after they kicked Matteo Salvini from power. Can you believe this!?

Tourists that visit the Colosseum in Rome these days are getting quite a shock.

A gigantic statue of a pagan Canaanite deity known as “Molech” has been erected right at the entrance. In ancient times, those that served Molech would literally sacrifice their children to him, and apparently this involved burning them to death. And now a massive statue of this pagan idol is the centerpiece of a new “archaeological exhibition” at the world famous Roman Colosseum. Yes, the exact same Colosseum where countless numbers of Christians were martyred for their faith is now the home for one of the most monstrous pagan deities that the world has ever seen.

A source close to the matter told Breaking Israel News that: “There is no way that such a thing could be done without direct permission from the highest levels of the Vatican. The Colosseum of Rome is owned by the Vatican, and specifically the Diocese of Rome, also called the Holy See. If anyone wants to do anything there, they must get permissions from the office of the Diocese of Rome. This exhibition, called “Cathargo: the immortal myth” could not be held there at all unless permissions were granted at high levels.”

The Looking Glass uses Wormhole technology. It can see the past and a possible future. Can it see the future of one timeline? Or several timelines? And according to stories, the Looking Glass device is able to teleport. Also to other worlds?

The Project Camelot website has some interesting information on this subject:

With regard to LG (Looking Glass): As I understand it, this device (at least 3 to 4 years ago) could not focus on a detailed sequence of activities in the future.

In other words, you could not see exactly what would happen, like a series of events. I was told to consider the multiverse idea combined with work by Richard Gott on cosmic strings. The multiverse apparently is accessed when the forward mode is set.

I was also told to consider the views provided by LG as one of many potential realities (at least in the future view mode).

Exo News:

Many believe that Q, based on multiple posts, is a group linked to US Army Intelligence working closely with the Trump White House. At first glance, it would be logical that military intelligence is helping 8kun to emerge online since 8chan/8kun was the only venue on which Q posts. However, it's unlikely that the US military would do this in any transparent way, given the legal and political implications of supporting a posting board that many in the general public have been convinced by the mainstream media to be a venue for radical right-wing radicals.

Nevertheless, by referring to Petrounovu's tweet, Q was sending a clear message that the military intelligence community is in some way helping 8kun establish a new internet presence, perhaps by protecting it from DOS (Denial-Of-Service) attacks. This is where Q's reference to "Project Looking Glass" becomes very significant.

The first public reference to a "Project Looking Glass" came from the legendary UFO whistleblower Bob Lazar back when he first emerged into the public realm in 1989 when he identified it as one of the classified projects run out of the S-4 facility at Area 51. In an interview Lazar (L) replied to a question about the project as follows:

C: Wasn't there something about "Looking Glass" project "Looking Glass"?

BL: "Yeah, that was later on... when we started getting into the heavy physics of it because gravity distorts space and time and what they were trying to do, and I say look back in time and some people conjure up images of a time tunnel... they're looking at distorting time in microseconds to see whatever event they were trying to observe through a gravitational lens... so that was a different project they were dealing with that... but that was essentially playing with gravity distorting time."

• Why transgender ideology is a conspiracy.

Whenever transgender ideology is discussed here, people ask why it's a conspiracy and not a run-of-the-mill identity politics/culture war distraction. Transgender ideology, and the accompanying dogma, is a conspiracy for four reasons:

1. It is an attempt to legitimize scientific experimentation on humans.

The effects of hormone therapy on humans, prepubescent children in particular, are not well understood, and most of the known effects are negative (increased risk of cancer, for example). Despite this, some doctors manage to prescribe it to children so that the effects can be researched. If you question the ethics of this, you can be shut down as a "transphobe". It's only a matter of time before other groups with dysphoria are exploited for the same end.

2) It is used to eliminate gender-nonconforming people from existence.

By "gender-conforming", I am including homosexuals, since in most societies attraction to men goes against the traditional gender roles of men, and attraction to women goes against the traditional gender roles of women. In some, but not all, ultra-conservative societies, such as Iran, effeminate gay men are forced to "become" women to avoid the shame of being gay. Something similar is happening in the west due to the unconscious sexism of many western parents who refuse to accept an effeminate son as a son, but think they're enlightened for being willing to accept him if he starts calling himself a girl (to a lesser extent, the same happens to masculine girls). It's incredible how it's now progressive to think that boys have to be masculine and girls feminine.

3) It is a strategy by which certain pharmaceutical corporations exploit the mentally-ill for money.

Many transgender people are mentally-ill (obviously this doesn't justify harassing them until they kill themselves) or severely depressed, and have been manipulated into thinking that they can't live with their body and that they'll be "cured" if they buy hormones for the rest of their lives. The mentally-ill should receive treatment instead of being exploited for money.

4) The accompanying dogma of transgender ideology is used to trick women into thinking furthering the sexual interests of the top 1% of men at the expense of women.

Does letting men have sex with as many women whenever however for whatever reason they want benefit women? No; evolutionary, women are supposed to be the more selective gender, because, unlike men, they are physically required to spend several months hosting the children of (except in very rare cases) only one member of the opposite sex. Does it benefit men who exploit depressed women trying to feel better about themselves by having constant sex? Yes. Do women benefit from lenient abortion laws? Rarely, and even then unnecessarily. Do men who pump and dump depressed women benefit from lenient abortion laws? Almost always. Do women benefit from being expected to take pills intended to destabilize their body's hormones, at the cost of their mental and in some cases even physical health? No. Do men benefit from being able to have sex with arbitrary women on demand with no preparation? Yes.

On February 7th of 1987, the Washington Post ran an interesting story that did not at first seem to have any particularly national significance. The article concerned a case of possible kidnapping and child abuse, and material discovered in the Washington area that they say points to a 1960s style commune called the Finders, described in a court document as a "cult" that conducted "brainwashing" and used children "in rituals." DC police who searched the Northeast Washington warehouse linked to the group removed large plastic bags filled with color slides, photographs and photographic contact sheets. Some showed naked children involved in what appeared to be "cult rituals," bloodletting ceremonies of animals and one photograph of a child in chains.

The "Finders" are alleged to be a CIA Operation, often described as a 1960s-style commune or cult that conducted "brainwashing" and used children "in rituals." The FBI has now unsealed a 324 page document that details this operation and the US Intel Communities role and their alleged cover up of child abuse.

Why do we have so many conferences in Taiwan?

Cobra : Taiwan is a very special place on the surface of the planet. I would say that Taiwan is the central point of the most Mass concentration of humanity where the most populated area on the planet. The second reason is that Taiwan is an island which has a very strong energy vortex. The third reason is that from the end of the Ming Dynasty to the beginning of the Qing Dynasty, many Dragon families have escaped from mainland China and settled in Taiwan. and they are quite present in Taiwan. So this dragon energy is supporting our conferences. This is actually the reason why we are having conference is there. This is the place one of the most positive Dragon family support places from the planet.

Do light force and high dimensional beings, like Pleiadians, Ashtar Command, Ascended Masters, RM and Cosmic Central Race pay close attention to this ascension conference in Taiwan?

Cobra : Yes of course. At every conference, they are already preparing things energetically. The energy is building up and they will be present to the conference.

In what could be a precursor to further stunning developments, the U.S. Navy has publicly acknowledged that the advanced aircraft depicted in several recently declassified gun-camera videos are UFOs, or what the Navy prefers to call “Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon” (UAPs). “The Navy designates the objects contained in these videos as unidentified aerial phenomena,” acknowledged Joseph Gradisher, spokesman for the deputy chief of naval operations, referring to the bizarre vehicles that have brazenly operated in restricted U.S. military airspace.

Strangely, this shocking announcement seems to have scarcely been noticed by Congress or the Trump administration. Is the information too jarring and radical to process? Are U.S. government officials in denial? One can only wonder, given the glaring disconnect between the Navy’s announcement and the limited government actions to protect U.S. military personnel and the nation as a whole.

The vehicles observed and recorded by U.S. Navy fighter pilots seem impervious to altitude or the elements; they are able to maneuver above 80,000 feet; they can hover and then instantly accelerate to supersonic and even hypersonic speeds; they have very low radar cross-sections and use a means of propulsion and control that does not appear to involve combustion, exhaust, rotors, wings or flaps.

Since the Navy asserts these are not U.S. aircraft, we are confronted by the daunting prospect that a potential adversary of the United States has achieved the ability to render our most sophisticated aircraft and air defense systems obsolete. Much like the Japanese reacting to the appearance of Admiral Perry's steam-powered fleet in Tokyo Bay in the 1850s, it would seem a matter of utmost urgency to determine who is operating these craft, how they work and the intentions of those commanding them.

I've interviewed numerous active-duty and retired military personnel who have encountered these mysterious vehicles. Without exception they express grave concern for their colleagues and near disbelief that our government is not reacting more vigorously.

This situation is not altogether unprecedented. Some 60 years ago Americans were shocked when the Soviet Union orbited Sputnik, the world's first artificial satellite. Sputnik garnered sustained front-page coverage, however, and Congress promptly acted on Americans' concerns by approving increased space and defense expenditures and enhanced education programs for math and science. The concerns roused by Sputnik spurred America to enter "the space race." The nation rallied to the cause and the commitment paid off when astronaut Neil Armstrong set foot on the moon a mere 12 years later.

Consider by contrast our government's tepid response to the latest news about UAPs. Some congressional oversight committees have asked for and received briefings, but none has held a hearing, either open or closed; none has appropriated funds for collection or analysis; none has even asked for a report or a threat assessment. Nor have Congress members expressed concern over apparently being kept in the dark on this issue for years by the executive branch, a situation that changed only after a small private organization — To the Stars Academy of Arts and Sciences, which I advise on national security affairs — made Department of Defense gun-camera footage available to the press and to Congress.

Why are we not analyzing the vast quantities of data already collected by America's vast sensor networks, already bought and paid for, to see what light that data might shed on the issue? Government paralysis is something we've grown accustomed to on domestic matters but, when it affects national security as well, we truly are a nation at risk.

Indeed, examination of major US intelligence failures — from Pearl Harbor to the 9/11 terrorist attacks and Iraqi WMD — shows that, in each case, we had information that, properly analyzed and acted upon, could have prevented disaster. We're at a similar place today, with ample warning lights flashing but no effective effort to pool relevant data from the myriad services and agencies that possess it.

The National Reconnaissance Office, Defense Intelligence Agency, CIA, Air Force and Navy, FBI and National Security Agency — there is no place in the U.S. government where all UAP information comes together. In that regard, the present situation is akin to counterterrorism before the establishment of the National Counterterrorism Center. Thankfully, new military spending is not required; we simply need to implement an effective strategy for collection and analysis using existing resources.

President Eisenhower, renowned for his military accomplishments as well as his valuable warning about the military-industrial complex, gave a speech in 1958 in my hometown of Ligonier, Pa., commemorating the 200th anniversary of Fort Ligonier. Referring to the Americans who settled the frontier, he said: “They were not turned back by terror of the unknown; they did not succumb to the tensions and privations encountered beyond the fringes of civilization. They moved ahead as companions in adventure, well-knowing that danger is often the inseparable partner of progress and honor.”

Israeli embassies worldwide close amid strike over expense stipends for envoys

By Daniel Uri

Oct. 30 (UPI) -- Israeli embassies and consulates throughout the world closed Wednesday due to a strike over expense stipends for envoys.

Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs announced the closures in a statement, saying no services will be provided to the public and entrance to the embassies will not be permitted as officials await the resolution of the issue.

I've been working with Ashtar Sheran with a team of lightworkers at underground bases around the world for the last year. I've written some information on it on our website www.sharonandivo.weebly.com, on the Ashtar Commanders tab. This team has used astral projection to see what's going on in the bases, and to help the galactics by sending white light into the base and raising the vibration of the shields. And the darksters have tried to split us apart but have failed.

Area 51 is Ivo's base. Area 51 was the first one we did because I naively thought that if we took the base for the galactic federation, I could get Ivo back with me more. Turns out I was wrong. Kerry Cassidy of Project Camelot has been interviewing Captain Mark Richards of the Secret Space Program, who says there's a star gate at Area 51. That makes sense because I saw a hotel there - a hotel for aliens, and she also confirmed that there's a large tourism industry for aliens to see planet earth!

By the way, we destroyed the hotel and took the base. However, Ivo is there still, repurposing the base into a spaceport for earth and positive galactics to use, but because there's a stargate there, there's fighting to regain control of the base.

Everything you see outside of these bases is a hologram. Pine Gap in Australia as well - it's a hologram. Captain Richards confirmed that.

Ivo: Yes, my love, our base is coming along smoothly but I am indeed watching for attempts to re-take it. And there have been some. There is indeed a star gate at this location, which goes throughout our galaxy. Therefore it is easy to access Area 51 and so it became a large spaceport for the dark beings. In future it will be a collaborative port for earthlings and the benevolent extraterrestrials who are interested in helping you to regain your powers as divine human gods. We have much work to do to help you to become, once again, the beautiful beings you were in antiquity, before the manipulation overtook your minds and made slaves of you. There is much to be done and you will require our constant presence. I myself have a one thousand year commitment to earth.

Underground Bases

Ivo: In the DUMBs, the underground bases which stretch across the entirety of your globe, run a collective system. It is not just deep underground bases. I believe this term was coined by a military who was only aware of the base they were working in because there is an entire world beneath your world, and above your world as well, just beyond your range of vision. Your surface world is entirely surrounded from above and below with beings who are only malevolent towards you. Your planet is under constant attack from alien races who wish to overtake it for themselves. Your people are blissfully unaware because they watch the news that tells them what they are to believe. This is in fact not the truth of course, and what you should believe is NOT what you see with your eyes. Your physical body is a limiter. It limits you to a reality that is physical in nature. And it is being highly manipulated in order to create a worse reality than you already have.

There are in fact many DUMBs and other types of aboveground and underground facilities that are involved in the rape of humankind. You are used as a resource to feed, to provide genetic material, to create new races, to provide slave labour, you are used for sexual services, you are being taken off planet never to see your home again.... yes, this is what is happening to hostages that are taken underground and many of them are children. These are exploitative beings that dominate this earth and they do not have your good in mind.

There are many types of beings in these facilities, not just reptilians, draconians and archons. The insectoids are heavily involved and there are certainly spiders as Cassidy has mentioned, that have managed again to invade your earth. And they eat humans.

There are the tall whites, there are low vibrational humans who are service to self, there are gaseous beings, water beings, all kinds of beings invading this earth with an agenda to plunder and make hostage of those living here. What is more, it is not just underground - it is under water as well! In the air, under water and underground. That is where all the negative ET races are situated.

Events such as the California fires were either attacks on your people, or the secret space program attempting to eradicate some of these invading species from your planet. The ones they seek to eradicate are the ones who do not have contracts with the SSP or any of your governments so they are not welcome. However your secret space program, run on your tax dollars, is quite happy to allow other invading races such as the zetas, the draconians and the archons to remain and these beings are exploitative as well. The mandate of the Galactic Federation is to remove all such exploitative races from your planet and to allow you your free will again. You are beings of love, gods created in the image of the creator, not slaves.

Me: There are many Negative ET races trying to dominate this world. We just think of the usual culprits but there are many more - up to 40 species of beings. And many of them like to eat humans. This they say, is why they keep disclosure from the general public - because they couldn't handle thinking of themselves as lunch for some carnivorous alien. Turns out, I had a friend who came across just such a being who happened to be looking for dinner, and she ran to get away from it. Had the other aliens it was with not had a use for her already, she would have been eaten.

Using nukes and destroying the environment is not by chance, they are deliberately trying to terraform this earth to their standards which means lots of methane and radiation Emro had told me that the cryptids that are seen around the world, like the chupa cabra are negative alien animals which would suit the environment they're trying to create. I put this in his first video. Negative ETs are trying to change the planet with radiation and pollution because it would suit them better.

Motherships are all over this planet. Some can see them with their naked eyes - they change colour but initially look like a flashing star. We have a video on this, produced not too long ago.

Ivo: We of the galactic federation and our alliance organizations, such as the Pleiadian delta forces, the Arcturian light forces, the Sirian Specialty Command, are surrounding this earth now, and we are battling to overcome the DUMBs and other underground locations to overthrow the dominance of the dark ones on this planet and raise the collective vibration of your people. Many are being taken off planet and arrested.

If you understood the extent of how you have been invaded, you would have more patience. Your invasion has been of the last 26,000 years and they have insinuated themselves into every facet of your lives. They have control over everything. There are currently still billions of reptilians alone living upon your earth.

The swing factor is the humans and particularly the lightworkers, whose job it is to awaken humanity to the truth and to free them to create a new reality. The facts have been denied to you in order to control your minds into creating the reality you see before you, so new facts (light) are being revealed to your planet in order to wake up those still unaware.

Once you hear the truth and align with it, your vibration will rise. The people of earth's frequency is the key factor in their own liberation. We can undertake campaigns but we will not be successful if your consciousness is not aligned with the frequency of our success. It is your world. We can help you but it is up to you to create a new reality. We are currently removing all dark influences from this planet in order to help free your minds. But there is much work still to do, even with as many of us working on this project.

Your help is required. Understand the truth, not the lies that are being fed to you. Raise your vibration and in so doing you will become a lie detector. Stop lying yourself - become committed to honesty and watch how you will be able to see deception at work.

The Earthling is a super human.

The DNA of the Earthling was so phenomenal in Antiquity that they were the supreme being of all beings. There was a super world here, created by super beings.

The Lemurians and Atlanteans didn't come here and continue to incarnate because they thought, "Hey! Let's make earth great again!" They incarnated here because earth WAS a great place to be.

All this has been erased from our minds and from our DNA. All beings in the galaxy remember every detail of their past lives. We don't. Why is that? Because it's been erased and any written record of it is sitting under the Vatican under lock and key. The rest is on the pyramids but nobody can read the glyphs. I was clued in to the fact that when our vibration rises enough some will be able to do it telepathically. It takes a higher vibration and telepathy to do it, and it also takes patience because each glyph is its own story! They're not words. I think they're kind of like a vibration – each has a frequency and that has to be interpreted.

The people you see as earthlings now are disempowered shadows of their former glorious selves. What we're seeing as an earthling is a pathetic waif compared to who they were millennia ago. ETs had contributed the very best of their DNA to the human form to create a super being. And they lived as super beings on what was a 5th dimensional planet before it dropped in vibration to 3D. They were Gods, gods in physical form. And look at them now! I'm sure tears have been shed because I feel like it.

This is what the ETs are attempting to do now: to restore humanity on earth to its birthright - to the kings and queens of the race that they originally were! I know Ivo is committed for a thousand years so I doubt this will happen overnight.

All of our memories have been wiped away. Our ancient civilizations lie at the bottom of the ocean and in Antarctica and we can't access them.

Can you imagine if this was accepted by the general public? What an outrage they'd feel and how they would begin to take their power back? This is why the dark fears the lightworker - because we access those who can tell us and I just did. So pass it on. People of earth need to know who they really are and how they've been tricked!

Me: Ivo, this is a travesty. I was told this last night by a benevolent being, who filled me in to the reason that people don't remember their past. It's been erased from our DNA by the toxic environment we live in, by vaccines and many other things that continue to destroy our DNA.

Ivo: And you have the DNA supplanted from the negative races who would wish to be your commanders. There is not a person on earth who does not have reptilian or Annunaki DNA. You all carry it to some degree or another. And this is the DNA that must be eradicated within your systems. You are doing this by doing your shadow work because this DNA upholds the shadow.

Me: So then what does it turn to?

Ivo: It allows the love of your light being to access that sector of your mind and to re-pattern it.

Me: Ah. So that means that the spiritual process will change in the future – once we eradicate this negative DNA?

Ivo: Yes, it will and yes, this is a travesty. However the annunaki/archons are not totally to blame. As Akon had said in, "Beyond the Light Barrier," you have a variable sun that goes through high and low periods. As your people are so dependent on the sun for energy, and ask any Canadian who lives through their sunless winters, they will agree with me wholeheartedly....

Me: I do. I'm a wreck without sunshine.

Ivo: Yes, your sun is part of the problem. It is a variable star which causes highs and lows within your development as a species.

Ultimately the earthling would be welcome to rehabilitate within the galaxy, but only after complete benevolence has been achieved. We do not need a warring species out in the galaxy. We already have a few and they are also not welcome to live among us.

Me: Ivo, I've seen lower dimensional beings on planets that are less materially developed than earth is. They lived in huts and wore simple clothes. But we weren't those beings, were we? We were like gods he told me.

Ivo: Yes, when you have the best DNA of all the human species, who are already created in the image of the prime creator, then how could you not be a god? You were a species to behold. Your dress was opulent. What you do today with your emphasis on dressing up, are the last vestiges of this opulent style.

And the plan is to restore you to your birthright. All 12 strands of DNA will be activated and this benevolent DNA will be restored. You hold the history of the galaxy within you already, but your own is missing, alas. Without your own history first, all else lies dormant within your DNA. Your manipulators knew this and worked to defile you into the poor creatures you are now – unaware of who you are, not understanding that you are a master, and worst, accepting of yourselves as marauding, negative beings of hatred. That is the basic earthling now replete with the DNA of your negative controllers!

Me: He also said that what we think of as extinct species of human, like the neandrathals and the other skulls – homo erectus, etc. Are not humans but a breed of ape/monkey that was closer to human. But not a human.

Ivo: That is correct. You have had no such process of evolution on your planet. These are not humans.

Because of the cycles of your sun, your people have gone through periods of destruction and re-birth. Your sun does not entirely support your growth in the long term and for that reason we can see you leaving the planet and moving out to better suited planets with better suns, as we did before you. But the earthling was always a master being. Never before has it come so close to destruction as it has now.

Me: So what purpose did the negative controllers, the Archons, have in coming to earth to destroy the people?

Ivo: They are parasites. Because they are of such a low vibration, they require a food source and that food is energy. So it was easier for them to overtake your planet after such a cycle when the Terran was at a low point in their sun cycle and rebuilding. They could not fight them off and as you know the controllers' techniques are so manipulative and so clever, it takes quite a lot to be able to detect them.

Me: It takes not being like them to detect them. To the extent that anyone on this planet believes in what they're doing is the extent they'll be fooled by them. So the perfect ploy: re-create a being in your own image and they'll follow you like a rat to the piper.

Ivo: Yes. Your world will thrive again. You will also be working on technology to produce solar energy when the sun is at a low point in her cycle. You are already working on technology to replace the sun. You had such a device already. Many will prefer a natural life and will leave, but your planet will persevere and this race will continue.

Me: I just want to say, Ivo, that I don't recognize myself as an earthling anymore – I identify with being Vegan so when you say “your planet” and “your people” you're not speaking of me. Part of the process of being a lightworker, as we've been discussing, is preparing to go home and identifying yourself as an earthling rather than a being of your own consciousness is a huge stumbling block. You have to identify with your race again.

Ivo: As we said, we do not want warring earthlings out in the galaxy and for that reason, the lightworker must make the switch as well. Because to identify yourself as a benevolent Vegan rather than a warring, aggressive earthling is important to being able to go home.

• Eric P. Dollard:

Eric Dollard is a legendary electrical engineer trained by RCA, Bell Labs and the US Navy. He is the only man alive to have successfully replicated Nikola Tesla's wireless electricity technology and is considered to be the modern living Tesla. Because of his contribution to electrical science and his advancements in a Tesla-Alexanderson type of Advanced Seismic Warning System, the Federal Government's documents in relation to this project refer to him as Dr. Eric Dollard, which confers to him an honorary PhD. His fans lovingly refer to him as Professor Dollard.

The Lone Pine Writings (Part 1) and its content was developed out of the general frustration of the author when trying to teach others about his work in electrical engineering. This collection of papers started appearing in discussion threads on Energetic Forum around 2011. At the time, Eric Dollard was living in his famous 1980 Toyota Corolla, in the harsh wastelands of Lone Pine, California. Originally, Eric wrote the material out on paper and mailed it to a colleague who transcribed the material and posted it in the forums under the pseudonym "T-REX". Each paper or letter was called a "transmission" in honor of the language of a radio operator and contained information on specific electrical engineering terms and how they are to be used. The original format of the material is retained in this edition of the book. The phenomena we call "electricity" is a dynamic, but artificial presentation of the Natural World, and because of this, its behavior follows specific rules. Understanding these specific behaviors is the key to engineering this phenomena, but developing a common language with which to describe these behaviors is the key to teaching others these engineering skills. The purpose of this book is to provide clarity for the electrical engineering community regarding the use of common terms for electrical units. The last attempt to standardize this language was made by Oliver Heaviside over 100 years ago and his effort was met by censure from the Royal Society of London. It is hoped that the release of this book will be met with a more enlightened response.

FOUR QUADRANT REPRESENTATION OF ELECTRICITY
by Eric P. Dollard

"In 1888, Nikola Tesla Invented
The Method To Transmit
Alternating Current Electricity
(AC) For Hundreds Of Miles.
Today, We Call This The Power
Grid. Most Electrical Engineers
Don't Really Know How It
Actually Works, Except For One Man Who Is Considered By Many To Be The Modern Day Tesla... And
His Name is Eric Dollard!"

REVEALED: Eric Dollard's "Four Quadrant" Theory of AC Electricity has now been expanded to include the entire history of what inspired him to arrive at his current understanding. It has bridged the gap for the laymen to see where his concepts are coming from and gives a segue into the technical parts for the engineer."

US Navy uses 450 or now 480 volts in Delta sequence.

Normal NEMA standards require a motor to be able to deliver full torque with a 10% variation in voltage from the nominal nameplate value. For a 480V motor, this is from 432V to 528V, so a 450V system would work. The motors can also be designed for a nameplate of 460V or even 440V, and was more common in the past where voltage drop and system stability would have been less predictable and reliable.

• WASHINGTON (NNS) -- Sailors aboard U.S. Navy ships soon will have new protective clothing for low voltage maintenance work, Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) announced, Jan 26.

A new type of coverall featuring flame resistant fabric and accompanying safety equipment will provide Sailors greater comfort and protection against arc flashes. Sailors will be able to use the coveralls like standard shipboard coveralls while conducting initial voltage verification checks, fuse removal, authorized energized work, or when an electrical circuit breaker is installed or removed.

"The new electrical safety coveralls are designed for initial voltage verification or approved work on energized equipment, and are designed to protect Sailors from inherent heat, excessive pressure," said Khosrow Moniri, NAVSEA electrical systems technical warrant holder.

Sailors can expect to use the coveralls and associated equipment such as a face shield by late spring, on board naval ships with electrical systems between 300 and 1,000 volts, such as Arleigh Burke destroyers.

the 12 seed races will be putting a frequency grid around the earth corresponding to the vibration of Gaia. This is beginning now.

So if Gaia is 4D then 12 fourth dimensional grids will be around this earth as a way to infuse Light into earthlings. This is for their sakes because the lightworkers have other means to obtain information, including direct contact.

Earthlings don't. The unawakened will be exposed to these extraterrestrial grids daily which I suppose will hasten their waking up and then infusing knowledge into their DNA again. Also the vibration coming off the grids will be of more integrity. Those on earth inclined to steal or lie will suddenly find themselves less prone to doing that, as an example because of this influence.

Ashtar says, "The infusion of these extraterrestrial energies into the collective consciousness of your planet will change the behaviour of people who may be finding themselves thinking and acting differently than they previously would have.

Ashtar said the original programming for the beings on this planet was that they were to be the superhuman with all the best DNA of the 12 seed races in their bodies and minds. For the past 26,000 years it's been anything but that. So now lightworkers have been clearing out bloodlines and ancestral history but the original programming has to be infused back into the DNA of the collective.

It was the reasoning of the Sabbateans that it would be easier to hasten the arrival of the Messiah by pursuing the dark path, so they set about inverting the the practices of their own faith, with the ostensible purpose of precipitating the return of the Messiah.

As I understand it, your countries are being warned off of any nuclear efforts, including power plants. Positive extraterrestrials are becoming a voice for the people, many of whom are tired of this destruction, warring and polluting of the earth. They are only speaking up for you where you cannot speak up for yourselves. Your world leaders are complying, slowly, because they realize there will be consequences in it for them if they don't comply.

Previously, the world leaders were approached and asked for their cooperation. The story of Valiant Thor is well known within your disclosure and light communities. He was Venusian. But now there is no asking – world leaders are being forced to comply otherwise suffer penalties themselves. Not their people – THEY will take responsibility for non-compliance with galactic laws themselves. Their people will no longer be punished for their deeds.

Hence GESARA is being implemented. Don't think that all of them are happy about it. They know they'll lose power. But better to lose power than to lose their lives, and many are believing they will be seen as a savior of your world. Such as Putin.

G: It is an interesting time for earth now. As it begins to change.

The galactics' plan is to use the current system in place and to work it to your benefit. There are many countries at odd with each other and this is due to the negative extraterrestrial alliances they are partnered with, and these countries are being placed in stalemates against each other so that neither will initiate war. They have also been warned off starting such a thing as there will be penalties for all the leaders who should decide to do so. The penalties now are being meted out to the leaders, as should have always been the case, not to the people. War on the peoples of this earth is abating, and the leaders are being taken to task for their prior heinous activities. What you will see going forward is the people waking up and becoming angry. There will be much civil unrest on your planet as people express their rage against their leaders.

Such is the case in Hong Kong now, as well as around Europe with the yellow vest protests.

The people are waking up. Your world leaders fear this.

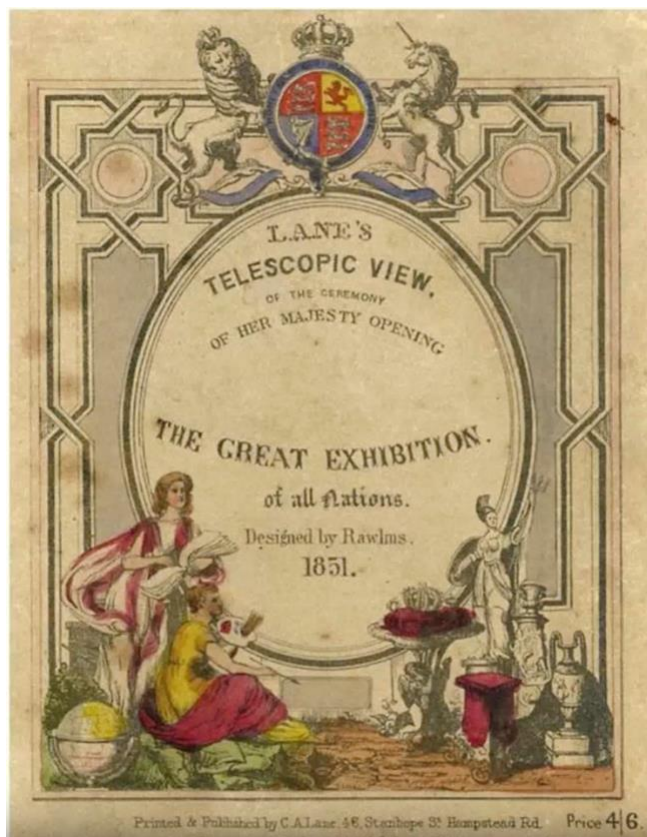

Movie star speaks out against pedophilia rings. Following the recent spate of pedophile arrests in California, movie star Brad Pitt has revealed the true depths of Hollywood pedophili in a shocking exposé. As a 30-year seasoned veteran in the movie business, Pitt speaks about his experiences after witnessing the dark side of the entertainment industry first hand.

Mr. Pitt describes how the whole TV and film industry is run around a culture of grooming children for child trafficking networks that reach across the United States and beyond, into the upper echelons of the political spectrum and societal hierarchy:

• "Watergate Hoax," by Ashton Gray

It was an MK Ultra show with Hal Puthoff on the CIA team

Mind control and a hoax to bring Nixon down

Gray goes into minute blow by blow detail proving Watergate was a planned CIA op. And how it was a cover for stealing the L. Ron Hubbard protocols/works that deal with auditing and the higher OT levels. The motive behind this is that the CIA & MJ12 had found that they needed a greater deterrent to keep people and especially Presidents and unwelcome pesky members of government out of the MJ12/UFO loop and in the dark.

Hubbard was killed, knew too much

RV is currency revaluation

You invest your power into the economic power of a dollar bill, but in fact it is your power. Money is simply printed paper, minerals and electronic figures. That is where the matrix has you tricked: in believing in its contrivances rather than yourself. You believe your automobiles are powerful, but if you were too afraid you would not be pressing the gas pedal so hard. You would be afraid of the power of that car. So it is your power, your lack of fear, that powers the car. The car is only a contrivance. And of course, on your televisions you see advertisements saying that these cars are powerful. It is you that holds the power, not the automobile. It will only sit in the driveway without you behind the wheel. You are its power. It does what you tell it to do. you understand that some days when you drive, you turn up Simple Minds, roll down the windows and drive over the speed limit because you enjoy the power but it is your power you are feeling. How can you feel the power of your car? You cannot. You can only feel your own power which also gets revved up when you rev the car up. No, I hear you resisting. Everything you feel is your own power when you sense the speed of the car. You are not the car. You are yourself and you feel your own reaction to the speed of the car and the vibration of the engine. You are a sensing device, remember.
